Motion to accept: 1st Curtis, 2nd Nancy

Choir:

Terry Moore addressed membership. He mentioned that the concert choir is young in the soprano section.

Concerts scheduled for March 26, 27, or 28 and May 29.

Mr. Moore would like to take the concert choir to the area Middle Schools to recruit new members for next school year. Approximately 60% of the concert choir members are graduating this year.

Show choir is also visiting Middle Schools to recruit 8th graders.

The Show Choir trip to Disney was incredible. Mr. Moore mentioned that all the kids were extremely well behaved and all participated and enjoyed the trip.

Some members of the Show Choir will be performing level 5 music for the County Adjudication on April 1.

Martina asked Terry for the Concert Choir email list.

Band:

Randy Rumpf gave the membership a run down on upcoming dates:

- Wed., Feb. 7: Meet the Director night for the upcoming 8th graders and their parents. He thinks of the 24 students in the combined Middle Schools, approximately 19 are ready to commit to Marching Band.
- Vocal and String Adjudication is scheduled for March 3 and Band/Instrumental is scheduled for March 10.

Marching Band news: Randy will be meeting with Percussion staff and he said that the fall show is locked in, with plans to get the music to students in April and May. His staff is ready to go.

Winter Guard: Performance dates? Someone needs to let Nancy know for the website.

Drama:

Dorothy Baker did not attend.

Ways and Means Reports:

Sub Sales: Volunteers are needed to help build subs on Thurs. Feb. 21.

Raffle for Concert Band: Distribute tickets for April drawings.

Holland Bulbs Sales: Selling in April for May delivery.

Bylaws Committee: Nancy Caraker reported that the committee had met, reviewed proposed changes and were working on the revisions and amendments.

Scholarship Committee: Gerry Claiborne reported that the judges were selected and the judging criteria had been set up. A flyer will be posted on both the THS.org and THSPAB.org sites. Martina suggested that students return their applications and essays in sealed envelopes to the Guidance office.

Martina reminded the directors that Unit budgets are due.

Keys Fundraising: Discussion centered on how to involve all students and their families in this effort. Everyone needs to help so that all the units benefit.

New Business:

Discussion was held about a Performing Arts Group Trip for March 2009. This trip would be for all students in the Performing Arts Cluster units (Drama, Chorus, and Band). Applications for proposed overnight trips must be submitted to THS Administration and School Board for approval. The trip would include workshops, performances, and lots of fun.

The Safe and Sane Parent Prom was mentioned. This is a dance to be held at St. Joe's parish hall. The cost is $25 a person and it is BYOB.

Meeting adjourned: 8:25 pm.
