Review of last meeting's approved. Motion to accept by Rich and Nancy.

Marching Band

Band is being recognized by the Vets with a plaque for performance at Golden Corral. We have been requested to perform for next year's event. After discussion, it is agreed that we should accept the offer.

Damon is visiting BCMS to recruit new members. Visiting Crestwood MS will occur after adjudication.

New marching band show tentatively called "Urban Rhythms". Practice after school begins April 12th. April 17th is an open house for parents and students. A flyer will be created to send home to parents/students. At this meeting the Keys volunteering information will be shared which will include being able to schedule for dates and gathering contact information.

Summer Concert Band Series letter was received. Damon will call to set up Cindy as being our contact person. This involves collecting money at a concert which we get to keep 50%.

T-Shirt fundraiser specifics shared by Martina. Detailed information concerning profit, costs, advertisements, and design ideas were discussed. Martina and Celia will email specific plans and forms to the THSPAB officers soon. The design for the show's logo will be done through a contest. Contest rules will be one of the forms created.

Nancy and Leslie will be reorganizing uniforms by number soon.

Nancy will develop a new data base of student contact information for marching band as information is given to her.
